Saint Damien Joseph De Veuster Of Moloka'i (1840-1889)

Feast Day: May 10

In the mid-1990s, a heavily bearded, bespectacled Robin Williams appeared on Late Night with David Letterman, whose host was clearly taken aback. Letterman inquired as to why the wild look. Uncharacteristically subdued, the usually manic comic responded that he was producing and starring in a movie about a most extraordinarily compassionate man, Damien, the Leper Priest of Moloka'i.

Some saints transcend religious and ethnic boundaries to touch the heart that beats in each human being: Francis of Assisi; Mother Teresa; and, though Williams' film was never completed, his admiration speaks, as does Damien's statue outside the capitol in Honolulu, of this newest saint's universal appeal. Far from his native Flanders' idyllic beauty and rich culture, Damien volunteered to bear Christ's light into Moloka'i's bleak leper colony, building decent homes, opening schools, establishing clinics, planting farms, sharing the sufferings — and the social stigma — of those with whom he delighted to identify: "We lepers," he would proudly say when finally he contracted leprosy. Saint Damien challenges us to identify the lepers of our own day, to examine our compassion for and our identification with them. —Peter Scagnelli, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Vocation

Roman Catholics in the United States spend a good deal of time speaking of "vocation" and the manner in which each of us discerns our vocation for life. In today's apostolic letter, however, Peter gives us the "cornerstone" of our vocation, the description of what each of us is called to first and foremost by our baptism. He describes our vocation as "a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people of [God's] own, so that you may announce the praises" of Christ, who called us out of darkness into light (1 Peter 2:9). All of us, no matter what path our life's vocation may take us down, have been chosen by God, made holy, and anointed as priests in the high priesthood of Christ through baptism. All of this, so that we may announce the praises of Christ. Vocation is given for proclamation at home, in the workplace — wherever life takes us — in service, in word, and in sacrament. Public Masses in the Diocese Suspended Until Further Notice

All parishes, missions, and chapels in the Diocese of San Jose have suspended all public Masses until further notice. Baptisms, weddings, and funerals may be celebrated but should be limited to immediate family. Faith Formation classes are suspended until further notice. All parish gatherings are being suspended until further notice. With the preceding in mind, Bishop Cantú has issued a dispensation from the obligation to attend Mass during this time for all Catholics in the Diocese of San Jose. Though public Masses are being suspended, parishioners are encouraged to remain connected to their parish community and to pray for each other. The Diocese and several parishes will continue to livestream Sunday Masses in various languages. Priests will remain available for individual confessions and urgent pastoral needs, including the anointing of the sick (Last Rites.) Please go to the Diocese of San Jose web site at www.dsj.org for the latest updates and for more information.

Make A Spiritual Communion

A spiritual communion is different from an actual or sacramental communion, in which we receive the Real Presence in the consecrated Host and Precious Blood. A spiritual communion is a devotion that we can initiate on our own, either inside or outside of holy Mass. We can make a spiritual communion at any time and in any place, as long as we approach the devotion with “renewed faith, reverence, humility and in complete trust in the goodness of the divine Redeemer” and are “united to him in the spirit of the most ardent charity,” according to Pope Pius XII's encyclical Mediator Dei (The Sacred Liturgy). In spiritual communion, we embrace Our Lord as if we had actually received him in the Eucharist.

We certainly can make a spiritual communion extemporaneously, but formulated prayers can be very helpful, especially when our concentration is being tried by the busyness of life. Here is a suggestion:

Act of Spiritual Communion
My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love you above all things, and I desire to receive you into my soul. Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you have already come and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen. — St. Alphonsus Liguori

Let Us Pray...

Let us pray for the people in our parish community who are homebound, sick, recovering, or are confined to rest homes, that Jesus be their strength and comfort.

This week we especially pray for Logan Habicht, Freida Flocchini, Adrienne Mackey, Audrey Nicholas, Jim Tkach, Pat Boorn, Charlie Schenck, Julie Wright, John Smith, David Arena, Terry Lanier, Sue Coffaro, William Bebla, John Mackey, Minerva Ramsey, Joan Kolokowski, Sam Ajam, Jim O'Connell, Scott Reno, Madeline Cannon, and Maria Ventura.

Please keep them and their families in your prayers. Names are placed for eight weeks. To place a name on this list or if you see that you or a loved ones' name has been taken off and would like it placed back in “Let Us Pray” again, please contact Sue at 408-879-1130. We welcome you to write the names in the Book of the Sick, next to Mary's Shrine.

Collections Still Needed

Your weekly contributions are still very much needed at this time. For the weekly collections, please send your envelope to the parish office via USPS or drop it in the mail slot by the parish office door. Use the church-provided envelopes for your contributions and please do not alter the envelopes by cutting them apart. For special collections, please make a second separate check payable to “St. Frances Cabrini Church” with the recipient of the collection written in the memo line. Your kindness is appreciated.

Weekly Collection

Please see next week's bulletin for updated collection numbers.

Religious Education News

By Joan Schenck, DRE • jschenck@sfcshschool.org

Updates in Religious Education: We will continue to "shelter in place" for the month of May. Catechists are doing their best to keep in touch with families via email. It is for safety that we send lessons to the parents. For the sacrament classes, 2nd and 8 - 12th graders, please continue a study for these very important sacraments. As soon as we know, we will inform everyone of the dates and times for the Confirmation and First Eucharist Masses. Every family should do their very best to attend an online weekend Mass.

For the confirmandi, they continue to receive my weekly lessons and Mass readings. I want to wish heartfelt blessing to mothers, grandmothers, and all those who are caring in the mothering role. A special prayer and appreciation for mom's added role of teaching school during this pandemic time. Proverbs 31:31 "Give her a reward of her labors, and let her works praise her at the city gates."

The peace of Christ— Mrs. Schenck
