"Pushed" Out On Mission

There is a delightful character in the original Dr. Dolittle Tales called the "Pushmi-Pullyu." It is a beast with two identical halves, with a head at each end. No matter which direction the beast walks, one end is the "push me" and the other is the "pull you." Today's feast is a bit like that in the life of the church. In the book of the Acts of the Apostles, it is the ascension of Christ that calls for the Holy Spirit, which consequently sends or "pushes" the church out on its mission. This is the message that we hear from the angels today as they tell the friends of Jesus not to look up into the clouds, but to get busy. It is the message of Jesus himself in Matthew's Gospel, as he sends them out to baptize. He also tells them, "I am with you always, until the end of the age" (Matthew 28:20). And it is this message, confident in faith that Jesus has ascended to shouts of joy, that "pulls" us along to our final destiny. The life of the faithful disciple, sent into the world on mission, will one day know the same risen, ascended glory.

Saint Philip Neri (1515-1595)

Feast Day: May 26

In a shop near the Vatican, a group of Americans laughed as the shopkeeper showed off his fluent English and latest souvenir, a key ring whose papal portrait, when pressed, activated a recorded blessing. Through the shop window, two clerics scowled disapproval. The shopkeeper grunted, "They're a very somber order who've left the Church. I recognize them." "By their long robes?" an American asked. "Many in Rome wear robes," replied the shopkeeper. "It's their long faces!" When Philip Neri arrived in sixteenth-century Rome, there was reason to be somber. Swiss Guards had been massacred on Saint Peter's steps defending the pope. Parts of Europe were abandoning the Church. But Philip resolved to be an "apostle of joy," drawing especially the young to Christ — and frequent confession and Communion — by his sincere interest in their problems, prayerful example, and gentle humor. His "Oratory," a movement as well as a place, provided recreation and devotion in a joyful atmosphere of companionship, service, and liturgy. Philip Neri challenges each of us to begin improving Church and world by changing ourselves with unflinching joy. —Peter Scagnelli, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Public Masses in the Diocese Suspended Until Further Notice

All parishes, missions, and chapels in the Diocese of San Jose have suspended all public Masses until further notice. Baptisms, weddings, and funerals may be celebrated but should be limited to immediate family. Faith Formation classes are suspended until further notice. All parish gatherings are being suspended until further notice. With the preceding in mind, Bishop Cantú has issued a dispensation from the obligation to attend Mass during this time for all Catholics in the Diocese of San Jose. Though public Masses are being suspended, parishioners are encouraged to remain connected to their parish community and to pray for each other. The Diocese and several parishes will continue to livestream Sunday Masses in various languages. Priests will remain available for individual confessions and urgent pastoral needs, including the anointing of the sick (Last Rites.) Please go to the Diocese of San Jose web site at www.dsj.org for the latest updates and for more information.

Your call will be returned as soon as possible. As always, our latest weekly bulletin can be found online.

Make A Spiritual Communion

A spiritual communion is different from an actual or sacramental communion, in which we receive the Real Presence in the consecrated Host and Precious Blood. A spiritual communion is a devotion that we can initiate on our own, either inside or outside of holy Mass. We can make a spiritual communion at any time and in any place, as long as we approach the devotion with "renewed faith, reverence, humility and in complete trust in the goodness of the divine Redeemer" and are "united to him in the spirit of the most ardent charity," according to Pope Pius XII's encyclical Mediator Dei (The Sacred Liturgy). In spiritual communion, we embrace Our Lord as if we had actually received him in the Eucharist.

We certainly can make a spiritual communion extemporaneously, but formulated prayers can be very helpful, especially when our concentration is being tried by the busyness of life. Here is a suggestion:

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love you above all things, and I desire to receive you into my soul. Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you have already come and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen. — St. Alphonsus Liguori

Let Us Pray...

Let us pray for the people in our parish community who are homebound, sick, recovering, or are confined to rest homes, that Jesus be their strength and comfort.

This week we especially pray for Logan Habicht, Freida Flocchini, Adrienne Mackey, Audrey Nicholas, Jim Tkach, Pat Boorn, Charlie Schenck, Julie Wright, John Smith, David Arena, Terry Lanier, Sue Coffaro, William Bebla, John Mackey, Minerva Ramsey, Joan Kolokowski, Sam Ajam, Jim O'Connell, Scott Reno, Madeline Cannon, Maria Ventura, and George Midwin.

Please keep them and their families in your prayers. Names are placed for eight weeks. To place a name on this list or if you see that you or a loved ones' name has been taken off and would like it placed back in "Let Us Pray" again, please contact Sue at 408-879-1130. We welcome you to write the names in the Book of the Sick, next to Mary's Shrine.

Collections Still Needed

Your weekly contributions are still very much needed at this time. Please send your envelope to the parish office via USPS or drop it in the mail slot by the parish office door. Use the church-provided envelopes for your contributions and please do not alter the envelopes by cutting them apart. For special collections, please make a second separate check payable to

"St. Frances Cabrini Church" with the recipient of the collection written in the memo line. Your kindness is appreciated.

Religious Education News

By Joan Schenck, DRE • jschenck@sfcshool.org

Updates in Religious Education: As we continue to "shelter in place" until the end of May, that is when religious education will end this month. Lessons via email continue through Wednesday, May 27th, our last class.

However, I will stay in contact with all the parents whose children are registered in sacrament classes for First Reconciliation, First Holy Communion, or Confirmation. If we notified you by phone or email that you need to submit missing paperwork or a copy of a baptismal certificate, please mail it in to SFC Parish, 15333 Woodard Road, San Jose 95124 to my attention. I remind you to continue attending weekly online weekend Masses and learning the prayers. All our catechists and our students are in my daily prayers. Please stay safe and feel free to email me any questions or concerns. I will notify everyone when we have the new dates and times for all sacraments. It will happen; it's just delayed due to this pandemic.

God bless all of you! — Mrs. Schenck

Formed.org Pick of the Week: Anthology: Chants and Polyphony from St. Michael's Abbey

The eclectic selection on this album is a cross-section of music sung at the Abbey that includes chants from the liturgy as well as motets and music from the Renaissance era. The latter are sung on more solemn occasions like Easter, Pentecost, Christmas, and the other great feasts of the liturgical year.

After all these centuries, the chants are still in use and retain their sacramental quality, their supple vigor, and their ability to dispose the soul for the contemplation of God and his mysteries.

If you haven't yet explored Formed.org, it is easy to use. Go to formed.org, click on "I belong to a parish/organization" and find our church by typing "St. Frances Cabrini San Jose, CA", add your name and e-mail, and you will be set! As a gift from St. Frances Cabrini Church, there is absolutely no cost to you!
