Becoming Catholic (through the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults)

Are you interested in becoming Catholic? Or, a Catholic who wishes to receive Confirmation and/or First Eucharist? Or, interested in helping someone you know become fully initiated in the Catholic faith?

Our parish offers an opportunity to come together in a small group to learn more about our faith. Sessions will focus on the teachings and experience of Church and prepare individuals to celebrate the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist during the Easter season. You are welcome to participate in the process with your questions, your insights and your faith story in a warm, welcoming setting. Sessions begin via Zoom, Tuesday evenings* (starting September 22) with an informal inquiry period.

For additional information/enrollment, contact Tim Van Overen at RCIA@sfcabrini.org.

* We will transition to in person meeting when we can, per the Santa Clara County health guidelines.

Saint Peter Claver (1581-1654)

Feast Day: September 9

Nearly two hundred years before the Declaration of Independence proclaimed "that all men are created equal," two hundred fifty years before the Emancipation Proclamation mandated an end to slavery, three hundred fifty years before Martin Luther King's "I Have a Dream," and four hundred years before the election of an American president boasting African heritage, Peter Claver left his native Spain behind to volunteer for the Jesuit missions in Colombia. There, he was horrified both by slavery as an institution and by the inhuman brutality inflicted upon the slaves. He solemnly vowed to become "the slave of the slaves," and lived that vow heroically for close to forty years. Not knowing their language, Peter began his ministry among the slaves by using the universal language of practical charity, providing medical care and a tangible though wordless assertion of their human dignity: "We spoke to them not with words but with our hands, kneeling beside them, bathing their faces and bodies, encouraging them with friendly gestures" (see Liturgy of the Hours, Volume 4, p. 2018). Then came evangelization and baptism. Holiness as human wholeness: Peter Claver's enduring witness.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love you above all things, and I desire to receive you into my soul. Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you have already come and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

— St. Alphonsus Liguori

Collections Still Needed

Your weekly contributions are still very much needed at this time. Please send your envelope to the parish office via USPS or drop it in the mail slot by the parish office door. Use the church-provided envelopes for your contributions and please do not alter the envelopes by cutting them apart. For special collections, please make a second separate check payable to "St. Frances Cabrini Church" with the recipient of the collection written in the memo line. Your kindness is appreciated.

The Act of Perfect Contrition

Shortly before the outbreak of World War II, Saint Maximilian Kolbe wrote a letter to his followers:

"Whoever can, should receive the Sacrament of Penance. Whoever cannot, because of prohibiting circumstances, should cleanse his soul by acts of perfect contrition: i.e., the sorrow of a loving child who does not consider so much the pain or reward as he does the pardon from his father and mother to whom he has brought displeasure."

Those who may wrestle with the means and ability to make avail of the sacrament of Reconciliation during this pandemic might wish to cleanse their souls by "perfect contrition." It is important to note that an "act of perfect contrition" includes the desire for the sacrament of Penance (or Reconciliation) and the intention to receive sacramental confession at the very first opportunity. (CCC 1452)

It is highly-recommended to include an act of contrition in your daily prayers:

O my God,
I am heartily sorry for having offended Thee,
and I detest all my sins,
because I dread the loss of heaven,
and the pains of hell;
but most of all because they offend Thee, my God,
Who are all good and deserving of all my love.
I firmly resolve,
with the help of Thy grace
to confess my sins,
to do penance
and to amend my life.
Amen.

Religious Education News

By Joan Schenck, DRE • jschenck@sfc.school.org

Dear Families,

Religious Education classes begin October 7th and are held as usual on Wednesday evenings, but this time on Zoom at 5:00 pm. Parents need to sign a Zoom release form for their child to be on it. I cannot create a new calendar with so much unknown, but know that Sunday, September 20th is Catechetical Sunday. We will meet every Wednesday until Thanksgiving break with no class on Wed Nov. 25th.

As usual, every parent and child must view a DSJ presentation on "Safe Environment." As you know, a major part in a child's faith formation journey is participation in a Saturday or Sunday Mass. The Liturgy, which is the source and summit of our faith, is vital to everyone's spiritual development, please livestream Mass weekly with your children.

A SPECIAL SHOUTOUT TO THE STUDENTS WHO RECEIVED FIRST HOLY COMMUNION:

We are asking for parents to send us photos of your child(ren) on their FHC day celebrated this summer here at SFC. We are making a beautiful collage for the bulletin and SFC Church Facebook page. You must sign a release form and in the article and post, we'll use children's first names only.

Thank you from the bottom of my heart, for we will get through this. I am blessed to have a staff of devoted catechists who want to share the Word of God and pass on our Catholic Traditions. Please email me at jschenck@sfc.school.org if you have any questions or concerns.

Formed.org Pick of the Week: "Mary: Handmaid of the Lord" by St. Teresa of Kolkata

St. Teresa of Kolkata is known throughout the world as a woman who was totally committed to the Gospel. In this inspiring talk, she shares her insights on the Blessed Virgin Mary as a model of womanhood and perfect discipleship. She shows us that we, too, can do the will of God by saying "yes" to the Lord in the big and little things in our lives; nothing is too insignificant. If you haven't yet explored Formed.org, it is easy to use. Go to formed.org, click on "I belong to a parish/organization" and find our church by typing "St. Frances Cabrini San Jose, CA", add your name and e-mail, and you will be set! As a gift from St. Frances Cabrini Church, there is absolutely no cost to you!
